

AAUW Plans Fall Events

New, old and prospective members will have an opportunity to get acquainted with each other and with 1962-63 program plans when the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, American Association of University Women, holds its first fall meeting, Sept. 20.

The informal get-together will be a dessert at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Raymond Oddone, 6 Surrey Ln., Rolling Hills. Mrs. Harold O. Simar, president, will conduct the meeting.

A wide variety of interests will be catered to by the study program which will cover such subjects as social and economic issues, music and art appreciation, books, education on all levels, legislation, painting, ceramics, and weaving.

FOCUS

With the focus on creativity, the year's theme will be "Women meet opportunities in cultural, educational and community affairs."

Outlining the year's plans will be Mrs. H. C. McLendon, program chairman, whose assistants are Mmes. John C. King, Eugene Klingler and Harry Peterson.

Study section chairmen, who will tell of their groups' plans and sign up interested members, are: Mrs. R. L. Wattenbarger, arts; Mrs. Robert S. Fraser, elementary and secondary education; Mrs. David Steybe, higher education; Mrs. Ralph M. Wood, Jr., social and economic issues; Mrs. Frances Scott, status of women; Mrs. Frank C. Fisher, legislative.

PROSPECTIVE

Interested prospective members may call Mrs. Thomas Harding, membership chairman, at FR 7-5285. Assisting her in welcoming newcomers to the meeting will be Mmes. William K. Ford, John W. Buchanan and Charles Perkins.

Helping Mrs. Stuart Forbes, hospitality chairman, in serving cakes baked by executive board members, will be Mrs. Milton C. Woolson and Mrs. Vincent Di Fiore. Additional board members to be introduced are: Mrs. Dean C. Dunlavey, recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph F. Goodwin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Oddone, treasurer; Mrs. James Heudens, historian; Mrs. Douglas L. Stone, parliamentarian; Mrs. Iving C. Brown, fellowships; Mrs. Joseph R. Rensch, bulletin; Mrs. Joseph Jay, special projects, Braille; Mrs. William J. Fleming and Mrs. William G. Stuart, publicity.

Club Guest To Discuss Delinquency

Lt. G. Rethwisch of the Torrance Police Department will address the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club at its Sept. 17 dinner meeting at the Halfway House in Torrance. Topic will be "Clauses of Delinquency Today."

A member of the Torrance Police Department for the past 13 years and presently head of its juvenile division, Lt. Rethwisch is a graduate of the Delinquency Control Institute of the University of Southern California.

This Institute has gained nation-wide attention for its work in this vital field; Lt. Rethwisch will report to the club members on the institute, as well as outline the basic problems confronting the community in controlling delinquency. The club is dedicated to promoting child welfare wherever possible. His address will be followed by a question-and-answer period.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills and Mrs. James Husereau of Torrance will present their completed plans for "Fantasy in Starlight," the club's fall dance social.

The Oct. 6 dance party will be held at the Fred Astaire Dance Studio in Torrance. Proceeds from this annual event will help support the club's main philanthropic project.

Membership information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

FINAL RESERVATION list of the eighth annual fashion show of the National Secretaries Association, Airborne chapter, is being checked by committee members (left to right) Mrs. B. A. Wertz, chairman, and Betty Jackson and Mrs. Pete Lecko. The event will be held tomorrow at the Pen and Quill Hotel.

Women Voters League Offers Pro-Con Book

Pros and cons concerning the Torrance Unified School District bond election, set for Sept. 18, are presently being distributed by the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance.

Purpose of the fact sheet is to encourage informed voting and stimulate interest in the election, according to a representative of the organization. Arguments for and against the ballot measure are included in the pro-con fact sheet. Copies are available to the public free of charge at each of the five branch libraries in Torrance.

DISTRIBUTION

Distribution of the fact sheets is a voters' service function of the league, according to Mrs. Albert Nadel, president. Voters' service chairman is Mrs. William Giessert.

Sept. 19, the league will resume its "Know Your Town" study begun last spring when it meets at 7:45 p.m. at the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors building, 22833 Arlington Ave.

EMPHASIS

Emphasis at the meeting will be on the personnel and budget departments of the city. Jerome Scharfman, municipal director of finance, will discuss the topic "How Your Tax Money is Spent." Theodore Donovan, personnel director, will explain the civil service system functions.

The meeting will be open to the public, according to Mrs. Emery Reeves, director.

Combined Event To Be Sponsored By Pharmacists

The South Bay Pharmaceutical Association and Women's Auxiliary will hold its annual combined installation dinner dance Saturday, Sept. 22, at the Palos Verdes Country Club, Via Campesina, Palos Verdes Estates.

Installing officers will be Joseph Powelson, president of the California Pharmaceutical Association, and Mrs. Fred C. Reese, president of the Women's Auxiliary to the California Pharmaceutical Association. Mrs. Reese is an active member of the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association, women's auxiliary, and served as their charter president in 1955.

Association officers to be installed are Edgar J. Lalande, president; Stanley Lieber, vice president; Abraham Gordon, treasurer; Gary Sims, corresponding secretary and Duane Shelstad, recording secretary. New auxiliary officers will be Mmes. Robert A. Sherrill, president; Charles Bogolea, first vice president; Clarence E. Brauer, second vice president; D. N. Engelbert, secretary, and Ralph A. Rector, treasurer.

Master of ceremonies for the evening will be J. O. Lee Solomon. The social hour will begin at 7 p.m. and will be served at 8 p.m. Dancing will be held until 1 p.m. Members handling reservations are Mmes. Bogolea, Sherrill and D. H. Ingle.

Fashion Event Held Tomorrow

The women's group of the Hollypark B'nai B'rith is presenting its third annual fashion show tomorrow, Sept. 13, at 8:15 p.m. at the Western Ave. Golf Club.

Styles featured will be from Nancy Craig's Dress Shop and hair styles will be by Glamour Puss Beauty Salon.

A late supper and the presentation of door prizes will be a special feature of the evening. Among the latter are a free weekend at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas and a Max Factor makeup kit. Information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Paul Klein, DA 3-5294.

In accordance with the policy of providing timely and informative programs for their members and guests was the Hollypark group's Sept. 10 meeting. Members of the fire department's rescue squad demonstrated methods of resuscitation and gave members the opportunity to try out what they had learned.

Card Party Set By CDA Chapter

An evening of cards and games will be held by the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Our Lady of Victory, at St. James Parish Hall, Vincent St. at Broadway, Redondo Beach, Friday at 8 p.m. Donation is 75 cents.

Co-chairmen Mmes. Nicholas Humpting and Roger Ste. Marie plan to have a turkey drawing, door prizes and game prizes. Hostesses and refreshments committee consists of Mmes. Fred Framble, Carmel Clune, Sy Durham, Norman Dupont, Leroy Sidons, Laura Dupont, David Stone, Florence O'Byrne, Frank Turner, Jim Davis, Pat Davis and Miss Mary Futterer.

Cocktail-Seafood Event Honors Couple's Guests

Among the recent hosts at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes were Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Bailey of Torrance, who entertained a table of friends with a small cocktail and seafood dinner party.

Rosenvall-Rippstein Nuptial Vows Said

A double-ring wedding ceremony joined Marsha Lee Rosenvall in matrimony to Gary Eldon Rippstein Aug. 25 at the Los Angeles Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Miss Rosenvall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rosenvall, 21207 Hobart Blvd., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Rippstein, 2436 Gramercy, Torrance.

The bride appeared before 125 guests at the 2 p.m. wedding in a gown with a white, satin brocade top and satin skirt. The gown, which had a short train, was made by the bride's mother.

VEIL

Miss Rosenvall wore a pearl-covered, half sea shell hat which held a shoulder-length veil.

Attendants of the bride, dressed in gowns of mint green, satin brocade, carried white rose corsages. They were La Ree Rosenvall, maid of honor, and Gayle Rentmister and Diane Berger, bridesmaids.

Attending the bridegroom was Gary Parton, best man. Ushers were Bill McLean and Kenny Jensen.

A reception was held for the newlyweds at the Torrance ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints from 7 to 9 p.m. Susan Rentmister attended the guest book.

MOTHERS

Mother of the bridegroom wore a powder blue dress with a matching hat and Mrs. Rosenvall wore a mint green dress with a lace top and chiffon skirt. They wore white corsages.

The bride is a former Narbonne High School student and the bridegroom is a 1957 graduate of Torrance High School and is now a member of the Torrance police force.

The couple resides at 3530 Garnet St., Torrance.

MRS. GARY ELDON RIPPSTEIN, nee Marsha Lee Rosenvall (Photo by Dale Rippstein)

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Las Damas Projects To Aid High School

Fermin Lasuen High School library will benefit from the five major projects to be sponsored by Las Damas de Lasuen in the 1962-1963 season. The first of these events is set for Sept. 22, when parents of incoming students will be honored at an al fresco steak barbecue and dance at Fermin Lasuen Plaza.

Highlighting the club calendar in December is a Christmas party at the Miraleste home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leo Foley, Jr.

A pre-Lenten fashion luncheon under the direction of Mrs. Francis Henry of Rolling Hills is scheduled for February and a gala St. Patrick's Day cocktail buffet at the hilltop home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rados is planned for March with Mrs. Kendall Linne of San Pedro as chairman. The traditional Cardinal Ball which honors the Lasuen faculty, will climax the year's philanthropic activities April 20.

Mrs. Robert Rados of San Pedro, who was installed as president of Las Damas de Lasuen at solemn ceremonies in Lasuen Chapel, will be assisted by Mmes. Andrew Svornich, vice president; Anthony Demaria, second vice president; Joseph Humm, recording secretary; Daniel Patapoff, corresponding secretary; Sam De Luca, treasurer; and Henry J. Smith, parliamentarian.

DIRECTORS

The board of directors appointed by Mrs. Rados includes Mmes. Paul Sturdivant, Rolling Hills, and Francis Leo Foley, Jr., Miraleste, ways and means; Alva Snider, Miraleste, senior student's director; Dominic Comparsi, juniors; William Malloy, sophomores; and Carl Morabito, freshmen. Hospitality chairman are Mmes. Michael Thomas, Vincent Budrovich, and Michael Petrich. Mrs. Thomas Ferrell, will write the club bulletin and Mrs. Peter Gaglio will handle distribution. Mmes. Harold Ereg and Nicholas Maricich will direct special events; Slavka Frelkin, membership; Frank Foretich, benevolence, and Attilio Coppa, coffee.

PRESS COMMITTEE

The press committee will include Mmes. Joseph Sultentor, Miraleste, George Chapin, Rolling Hills, Richard Steinauer and Kenneth Ward Smith, Miraleste.

First general membership meeting will be held Sept. 20 when Coach Thomas Robinson, Jr., of the Lasuen faculty, will address members and guests.

MRS. ROBERT RADOS, Las Damas President

Mother Honors Daughter, Son At Lunch, Party

The birthday of Mrs. Jerome G. Doyle, Torrance, was celebrated recently when her mother, Mrs. Bertha F. McNeil, treated her and her two children, Patrick and Peggy Sue, to a lunch-birthday party at a Torrance restaurant.

The birthday party, which featured a sparkler-lighted birthday cake, had been postponed to include Bro. Jack McNeil, S.M., honoree's brother, who had an eight-day vacation home. Bro. McNeil entered the Marine's Order in July, 1957.

Following the lunch, a party was given at the summer apartment of Mrs. McNeil at the beach. Guests included:

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Colombo and son Danny, Sheri Simmons, Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doyle and daughter Robin, Harbor City; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Koller, Gardena; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marrah, Jr., and daughter, Christina, Lakewood; Mrs. Clifford Priny, Mrs. Thomas Jacobs; and Ivan Hedberg, Los Angeles.

Invited but unable to attend were Mrs. Doyle's grandmother, Mrs. Nina Hedberg, Bob Hedberg, Clifford Priny, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Olds and daughter Sharron, Los Angeles; P.B. Navy Lt. Thomas Jacobs, San Diego; and Gregory J. Doyle, Lomita.

Colored slides of Mrs. McNeil's recent European tour, which she took in order to be with her daughter and son-in-law when their first child, Patrick, was born in Grafenwohr, Germany, were shown. They included Germany, Switzerland, France, Italy, England, Holland and Spain. Another highlight of the evening was the viewing of the colored slides taken by Danny Colombo, U.S. Air Force, in Korea. Colombo is on leave with his parents in Torrance.

Refreshments were served including a beautifully decorated cake was the centerpiece of the table. A tablecloth depicting all cities of Germany and wooden shoes from Holland holding the birthday napkins, decorated the table.

NICE FIT, grin Bertha Sharp and Ethel Liske (left to right), members of the Royal Neighbors, as they show off merchandise modeled yesterday at the organization's cold plate luncheon and fashion show.

Governor of Pilot Club To Make Official Visit

Mrs. Arlene L. Saltz, governor of district 18, Pilot International, will make her official visit to the Pilot Club of Torrance tomorrow at its dinner-meeting, to be held in the banquet room at the Palms restaurant at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Saltz joined the Pilot Club in 1952 and has given a great deal of her time and talents to further the purpose and ideals of this International service club. She has held several offices and chairmanships in her local club of Los Angeles and was membership and pilot information committee chairman and Lieutenant Governor of District 18 and is a member of the board of directors of Pilot International.

She is an active member of the Gavel Club and the Service Club of Los Angeles and a member of the First Congregational Church of Hollywood.

Mrs. Saltz is employed by an advertising firm as media administrator and enjoys swimming, dancing and background painting for TV cartoons as hobbies.

Mrs. Leola Cork, publicity and public relations chairman of district 18 and member of Pilot Club of Torrance, has made arrangements for members, co-pilots, guests to attend the Red Skelton show at CBS-TV City on Sept. 26. Following the show, the group will take a guided tour of the studios. A chartered bus will leave the Torrance City Hall at 6:30 p.m. to make the trip to Hollywood.